Player profile:	I'm a centerback who likes to play the ball with a clean exit of the ball, and according to a lot of coaches I'm a player with very good tactical concepts. I'm a strong player in the duels with an-85% of duels won this season, personally I consider myself as an aggressive player and very quick to cut the ball. I'm also a player with a high offensive capacity that allows me to score 3-4 goals per season. Since a young age I've competed with high level academies such as Real Madrid (Invited to trials of 1 month twice) and Rayo Vallecano (played 3 seasons with Rayo Vallecano). When I was u-19, I've made my senior debut, in the Preferente category of Madrid and with the first team in a friendly (the first team is playing in 1RFEF the 3rd division of Spain), I've also been training with the first team twice a week. Actually I'm playing in the first division of Andorra (the level is similar to the 1 RFEF level), and I'm the youngest defense of the league.
